

Free parking is available at several City parking lots within close proximity to the Amtrak station.

1. A Park-n-Ride lot with 78-parking spaces is located at the intersection of Church and North Grant Streets and is one block from the Roseville train station.
2. The 540-space parking garage on Vernon Street is approximately a 10 minute walk from the station. The parking garage is located near the intersection of Vernon and South Grant Streets. To access the train station from the parking garage, walk towards the Civic Center on Vernon Street and take the pedestrian connection within the Washington Street underpass to Historic Old Town; upon exiting, the train station will be on your left.
3. Additional spaces may be available in Historic Old Town at the Pacific Street public parking lot.

Parking in all three locations is free!
